Winter 2019

A Franciscan Benediction

May God bless us with discomfort at easy answers, half-truths, and superficial relationships, so that we may live deep within our hearts.

May God bless us with anger at injustice, oppression, and exploitation of people, so that we may work for justice, freedom, and peace.

May God bless us with tears to shed for those who suffer from pain, rejection, hunger, and war, so that we may reach out our hands to comfort them and turn their pain into joy.

And may God bless us with enough foolishness to believe that we can make a difference in this world, so that we can do what others claim cannot be done, to bring justice and kindness to all our children and the poor.

"He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?" Micah 6:8

To all our volunteers and supporters, thank you for being someone who greets injustice with action, for being someone foolish enough to believe they can make a difference and isn't afraid to try. Thank you for choosing Palouse Habitat for Humanity as one way to serve our neighbors in need.

However you celebrate this time of year, we wish you the Happiest of Holidays from Palouse Habitat for Humanity!

New Faces at Habitat

Jeremy Mutart, Surplus Sale Receiving Manager

Hello! My name is Jeremy Mutart, and I am the new Receiving Manager for Palouse Habitat Surplus Sale. I am originally from Alaska but recently retired from the U.S. Army in May. I am married to an awesome wife of 18 years and we have 3 kids all in high school. We moved to Moscow in March to be closer to family and to allow my wife to attend the University of Idaho to finish her bachelor's degree in accounting. I enjoy outdoor activities such as hunting, fishing, and camping and now that I am retired, I am hoping to spend more time doing those things.

Jennifer Trout, Palouse HFH Board of Directors

I am a Palouse native, currently living in Troy, ID with my husband and our three children. In 2010, I graduated from the University of Idaho with a degree in journalism, but started a career in healthcare. I have been the marketing and admissions coordinator at Aspen Park of Cascadia for over five years. I first started with Palouse Habitat for Humanity in 2018 when I signed my Aspen team for work at the Potlatch build site. Inspired by the values of Habitat for Humanity, I've continued to join the build sites, and last year sponsored a table at Beans 'n' Jeans. My goal is to be an instrumental part in spreading Palouse HFH's mission to our regional community.

Gifts in Memory

Larry Turnbow

Palouse Habitat Surplus Sale volunteer Larry Turnbow, 66, passed away in September at his home south of DeSmet, Idaho, from cancer. He was born in 1953 in Honolulu to Chuck and Dorry (Kammerzell) Turnbow. He grew up in Clarkston, graduated high school in 1971, and attended Eastern Washington University.

Larry met Lael Anderson in 1982 at the Spokane International Airport, and they were married at the Boise Airport on Feb. 14, 1985. The couple made their home in Moscow until moving to the family homestead south of DeSmet, Idaho, in 1995.

Larry was a gifted craftsman, and he enjoyed sharing that gift. He owned and operated Woodcraft Unlimited Inc. from 1984 through 2016 when he retired. He was an artisan cabinet-maker extraordinaire; his cabinets can be found in hundreds of homes and businesses around the United States. In his spare time, he restored classic cars, antique guns and made the family homestead a welcoming haven. He was also known to enjoy a glass of Glen Moray Scotch whisky and a good cigar overlooking the pond.

Survivors include his wife, Lael; his children, Roxanne Sisis, of Colorado, and Matthew Turnbow, of Moscow; one grandchild, Thomas Nations, of Colorado; his parents, Chuck and Dorry Turnbow, of Clarkston; his siblings, Tom Turnbow, of Clarkston, Cheri Curtis, of Pullman, and Shelley Benson, of Montesano, WA.

Former Surplus Sale Asst. Manager Wendy Lawrence remembered his skill with repairing and restoring furniture. "He was a talented individual and a pleasure to work with."

Habitat Happenings Fall 2019

Did you catch future homeowner Rick Kruger during his shift at the Palouse HFH booth at the Latah County Fair? He came straight from the build site! Habitat volunteers staffed booths at the Palouse Empire Fair and Palouse Days as well.

The 1997 Chevy Habitat truck finally died on the side of the road in Farmington, WA. Many thanks to the Idaho Community Foundation, Chipman and Taylor, private donors and funds from the Surplus Sale for making our new-to-us construction truck possible! Pictured left to right: Brent Bradberry, Construction Committee Chair and Home Repair Coordinator, Dale Hammerly of Chipman and Taylor, and Dave Ostrom, Board Member, Safety Officer and Construction Project Coordinator. The truck will be used to haul volunteers and construction materials to build sites and home repair sites around Whitman and Latah counties.

Palouse HFH Executive Director Jennifer Wallace received the Hall of Fame Award for Community Service at the Smart Women Smart Money 2019 Conference.

Palouse Habitat honored Jeri Pool and John Read with the 2019 Helping Hands Award in recognition of their dedication and service at the Palouse HFH annual volunteer picnic in October. Left to Right: Board Chair Cathy Blood, Surplus Sale Manager Mike Madsen, Jeri Pool, John Read, and Executive Director Jennifer Wallace. Jeri Pool has volunteered with Palouse HFH for almost 10 years. She tracks volunteer records to keep our reports to Habitat International accurate. John Read was an early volunteer at the Surplus Sale. His dedication and expertise has helped the Sale grow.

Enjoying great food and time with friends at the Volunteer Picnic, Habitat Board member Kathy (husband Bryan) Slinker, future homeowner Roberta Kruger, Surplus Sale volunteer Wally (and wife Sharon) Quast, Surplus Sale volunteer John Read, and Board member Nancy Tribble.
